Supreme Court Justice Worster Resigns, Effective July 31st

Gov. Sewall Tuesday announced the resignation of Associate Justice George H. Worster of Bangor, a member of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court, effective July 31.

Justice Worster, who was 70 years of age last Sept. 5, recently informed Governor Sewall of his intention to resign. Replying to Justice Worster Tuesday Governor Sewall wrote, "Your long and splendid record on both the Superior and Supreme Courts is a matter of great pride to your many friends and associates. You may rest assured that the outstanding service which you have so ably rendered to Maine is deeply appreciated by all."

Justice Worster was appointed Justice of the Penobscot Superior Court Nov. 25, 1924 and served in that capacity until the act creating the Superior Court of the State became effective Jan. 1, 1930. From that time on he served as a Justice of the Superior Court until he was appointed as Associate Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court, Dec. 21, 1939.

A Spirited Reply

Airman, Serving In Oklahoma Thinks Private Kenniston Is "All Wet"

Oklmulgee, Okla., July 2. Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—To say that I was amazed and disgusted after reading the article from Private Kenniston as of May 26 in your paper, is putting it mildly. Amazed that a paper from the State of Maine would publish a story of this kind and disgusted that a Soldier in the armed forces would give out such misleading information.

I am afraid that the army is a mighty poor place for soldier Kenniston, and from his letter he either believes all the stories heard or allows his imagination to follow wild flights of fancy. Pvt. Kenniston does not consider the average soldier but takes instead the very small minority group who have little, if any, self control and were the same in civilian life. So why blame the Army?

We are not attending a strawberry festival, nor even a pink tea down in this dust bowl. We are paying strict attention to Army routine in general while toughening up physically to be able to hold our own if and when we tangle with the new order in Europe, Asia or anywhere across the water. I have had considerable experience in both Naval and Army life and in both branches of the armed forces have found a good clean bunch of American boys who have left good homes, positions, friends and nearly all their pleasures for the sake of helping to preserve our democratic way of life and to show the axis that Uncle Sam is a Mean Foe To Tangle with when fully aroused.

My Buddies all came from Christian homes and those who are fortunate enough to come home from this mess, will to my mind, be better men and better citizens than when they went into the Service even if they have not been fed on spiritual food alone. If prayer could stop this war it would have been over quickly and if soldier Kenniston thinks that prayer will stop a bullet or turn aside a bayonet, he will get the surprise of his life in actual combat.

Pvt. Kenniston does not believe in allowing women to be near the

Recruiting Here

Representative of the Marine Corps At The Post Office Today

The United States Marine Corps recruiting office here has a representative in this city today.

Staff Sergeant Joseph H. Gambino will have his headquarters at the Post Office this Friday morning and afternoon, and will interview and examine applicants for enlistment in the Marine Corps.

At present there are vacancies both in the regular Marine Corps in which enlistments are for four year periods, and in the Marine Corps Reserve for the duration of the emergency. Men between 17 and 33, married or single are eligible for enlistment, and Selective Service registrants may enlist in the Marine Corps up until the day of their induction into the Army unless they have been granted individual deferments, where in some cases it may be necessary for them to obtain a release from their board before enlisting.

lowly soldier. I wonder if he ever heard of the U.S.O. and the spirit of the girls who try to entertain the boys with dancing, games, free movies, etc. I fully believe if he tried to step out with the average girl and tried to imitate some of his hearsays, he would find the young lady plenty capable of taking care of herself and Pvt. Kenniston as well.

This is 1942 not 1942. We are in the Army and the public in general know that our environment is not like home but why print such drivel about low morals for some people to exaggerate?

Excuse spacing and other errors as an empty gas drum and lantern is far from ideal as good writing requires.

ABLE JURIST RESIGNS

The resignation of Justice George H. Worster of Bangor from the Supreme Bench of Maine removes one of the State's ablest jurists, and was learned with much regret in this city where he had presided several terms while a member of the Superior Court Bench. It is to be assumed that the vacancy will be filled, as was the case in his instance, by a member of the Superior Court Bench which in addition to attending to its own important functions becomes automatically a fine training school for the senior body. All of which leads to the question as to when a Knox County attorney will be named to the Superior Court Bench.

THE NEWS FROM OTHER FRONTS

We are so used to hearing good news and bad from the Egyptian front that the present supremacy occasions more wonder how long it will last than does the fact that Great Britain has staged a come-back there. In any event the day's news is much more encouraging than that which is coming out of Russia; whose heroic stand the past year has meant more to the Allied Nations than words can describe. Should the Russian cause perish the Axis powers would have every reason to claim that they were on their way to world domination. It is a contingency that must not happen.

KILLINGS BY THE WHOLESALE

Sabotage is constantly increasing in Czechoslovakia, impelled by the wholesale assassinations which have occurred since the German butcher, The story that 10,000 Czechs have been slaughtered since the killing of Heydrich was told in Ankara, Turkey by a German arrival, who also stated that convalescent Germans at hotels in Vienna and Prague have been ordered to remain indoors that their disfigured faces and amputations shock the public into a realization of the punishment the Germans have been taking in Russia. No, we do not know anything about war, in this country. Yet.

MAY REQUISITION TIRES

Motorists who sail blithely along the Maine highways at prohibitive speed, and who use defense gas rationing to cover joy rides, will accept somewhat soberly the assertion of President Roosevelt that it may become necessary for the government to commandeer all of the automobile tires in the country. This would work tremendous hardship upon those who find motor cars absolutely necessary to the prosecution of their future rather than a threat, and should give pause to those who are using gas recklessly.

CONDITIONS IN GERMANY

We read and hear a great many things about the war which are exceedingly hard to credit, but not so the statement of a Polish woman refugee that every second woman in Germany is in mourning, that the newspapers are filled with obituaries, and that the people are sick of the war, but dare not say so. A German woman, the girl related, hollered aloud one day that there was no food in Germany. She was placed on probation and forced to appear daily at police headquarters to recite over and over "there is plenty of food in Germany." The sympathy of all Americans goes out to those German people who did not want another war and who are innocent victims of it.

MUCH GAME BUT FEW HUNTERS

Archer L. Grover, deputy commissioner of the Inland Fish and Game Department is authority for the statement that Maine has a deer population of 107,800, and 2279 moose. This newspaper recently quoted Warden Davis of Union as predicting a wonderful game season next Fall, but who also foresees a great shortage of hunters. Young men who would ordinarily welcome the reports of Grover and Davis, are scattered in many lands, hunting game of quite a different character.

SNOW'S YARD GETS BIG CONTRACT

Will Receive $6,000,000 For Construction Of Six Boats Of the "P. N." Type

Good fortune continues to crown the efforts of Snow Shipyards, Inc., which on Tuesday closed a contract for the construction of six ships of the P. N. class for the United States Navy.

In return for this work the Rockland yard will stock approximately $6,000,000.

The proposed craft are somewhat similar to the two A. R. S. boats now under construction in the local yard, but details as to dimensions, etc., are not forthcoming except that the ships will measure a little less than 200 feet on the keel.

They will be operated by single propellers, whereas the A. R. S. boats have twin propellers.

Construction of the boats will begin at once, creating a state of activity in Snow's yard heretofore undreamed.

Local Victory Fund

Chairman Hellier Announces Committee Makeup — Bonds To Be Offered

Edward J. Hellier, chairman of local Victory Fund Committee

Edward J. Hellier, Treasurer of the Rockland Savings Bank, chairman of the Local Victory Fund Committee, announces the appointment of Joseph W. Robinson, Herbert C. Newbegin, I. Lawton Bray, Lawrence Miller, Harold P. Blodgett, Lincoln E. McKee, Charles A. Rose, H. Ernest Keywood and Ralph L. Wiggins, as members of the local committee in the campaign to expedite the sale of Government Bonds to Banks, Corporations and Investors.

Victory Fund Committees, nationwide, are made up of men trained in Banks, Investments and Business, in order that this work may be carried on efficiently and with the least duplication of effort.

At an early date an offering of Government Bonds will be made which should appeal to the investing public and corporations. The committee will greatly appreciate telephone orders or information that will assist in the sale of these bonds, which will probably be issued each month for duration of the war.

The entire school will sit in a body at the morning church service Sunday and will have some part in the worship period. A picture will be given to each one who is present, and perfect attendance for the entire two weeks will include this church service.

The closing session and exhibition will be held next Friday at 7.30. Those helping in the school are: Beginners department, Mrs. Ralph

PATRIOTIC SONG

Before all lands from east to west,
I love my native land the best.
With God's best gifts 'tis teeming;
No gold nor jewels here are found,
Let men of noble souls abound,
And eyes with joy are gleaming.
Before all tongues in east or west,
I love my native tongue the best;
Though not so smoothly spoken,
Nor woven with Italian art;
Yet when it speaks from heart to heart,
The word is never broken.
Before all people east or west,
I love my countrymen the best.
A race of noble spirit—
A sober mind, a generous heart,
To virtue trained, yet free from art,
They from their sires inherit.

"The Black Cat"

By The Roving Reporter

The older a mother is the more likely she is to have twins, according to Census records. During 1940, mothers aged 20 to 24 bore most single children, and mothers aged 25 to 29 bore most twins.

A Mohammedan temple in Mesopotamia exhibits a tooth of the whale that swallowed Jonah. Is it much more childish than the millions in America who swallow the story without a tooth? asks a reader of the Black Cat.

Extremely interesting is the miniature copy of the Rockland Courier, which somebody with five initials sent me yesterday. It was published in 1880 for gratuitous circulation at the Knox County Agricultural Fair. Advertisers in the tiny issue were E. W. Berry, men's clothing; Fuller & Cobb, dry goods; the Singer Sewing Machine; E. B. Hastings, dry goods; Albert Smith, music and variety store; Blackington's clothing store; W. O. Hewett & Co., dry goods; J. P. Wise & Son, hardware; G. W. Drake, agricultural implements; Simonton Bros., dry goods; Wm. H. Hyde, variety store; H. H. Crie & Co., hardware.

In Germany smokers' ration cards are used. If enforced among some Rockland addicts what a grim war tragedy that would be.

Out in the Canary Islands they have solved the gasoline conservation problem by using a small steam locomotive and four abandoned street cars. Seems like we have the "makings" here in Knox County.

The Courier-Gazette had scarcely been delivered Tuesday before Mrs. Lendon C. Jackson, Jr. called The Black Cat to say that Arizona was the last State admitted to the Union and that the date was Feb. 14, 1912. It was a close race with another Western State. What State, and when?

Mrs. John H. Andrews of Rockport writes: "Thinking it might interest you and the Black Cat, I am informing you that one of my bird stories was a prize winner in the Bird Column of the Boston Sunday Post, during June. It was named 'The Mournful Sparrow.' Of course I was much pleased as this was my first visit to that column of the Household Section, and was not expecting such a welcome."

This morning I received a picture postcard representing a scene at Guayaquil, Ecuador. It was sent by Capt. "Bill" Wincapaw who writes: "I wonder how many other persons have ever read The Courier-Gazette standing on the Equator." The Black Cat goes even there.

A Massachusetts car parked on Main street yesterday afternoon had an unusual delivery in the form of a South American ring-tailed monkey, which appeared to be very much devoted to the attractive maiden in charge of the car. I could understand the monkey's diversion.

One of the busiest corners in Rockland is formed by Union and Lincolnton streets. On a recent mid-afternoon 80 cars passed there in 10 minutes. And it wasn't much of a day for traffic.

A friend sends me a clipping from an old and discolored newspaper, so old that I cannot even guess the date. It tells "Why the Minister Was Leaving," and is good enough to repeat here:

"A minister in a certain town in Alabama took permanent leave of his congregation in the following manner:

"Brothers and sisters: I come to say goodbye. I don't think God loves this church, because none of you ever die. I don't think you love each other, because I never marry any of you. I don't think you love me, because you have not paid my salary. Your donations are moldy fruit and wormy apples, and 'by their fruits ye shall know them.' I am going away to a better place. I have been called to be the chaplain of a penitentiary. 'Where I go ye cannot come, but I go to prepare a place for you,' and may the Lord have mercy on your souls. Goodbye."

—Failure Magazine.

One year ago The Maine Fire Chiefs Association held its quarterly meeting in Rockland, with a banquet at Crescent Beach. A widespread search was made for Clement Sawyer, 3, who was found in the tall grass near his home, uninjured. —Among the deaths: Somerville, Mass., Mrs. George W. Ames, of Rockland; Vinalhaven, Edward A. Smalley, 59.—Mr. and Mrs. William A. Paul of Rockport celebrated their golden wedding.

Book Review

The Boy from Maine. A novel by Katharine Brush. Published by Farrar & Rinehart, New York.

Give the writers time and every Island off the beautiful rock-bound coast of Maine will have its own story in novel form that holds adventures in love and war, in tragedy and the delights in life, broad, beautiful, ecstatic, serious and strenuous life to the full.

This time the seat of the story starts with Hobeys Hadley of Mitchell's Island. Told with the breadth of a generation in delightful biographical terms.

Katharine Brush shows rare ability in all her undertakings. She is a newspaper syndicate writer, screen originals, short stories and several novels—"This is on Me" her most delightful book and what makes it so is that it's really autobiography.

She distills into the spirit of her characters living human in thought and purposes, visioning life as thousands of others have but with a difference that calls for and holds one greatly thrilled with her problems. She paints and oils with accuracy.

There is a well bound book, excellent print and workmanship in both writing and binding. You will miss a treat if you miss The Boy from Maine.

Pirates 4, Camden 3
At Community Park Tuesday night the Pirates won over Camden by a 4-3 margin. In the first inning after one was away "Bun" Thompson singled, Dowling walked and R. Ellis drove in Thompson with the first Pirate run. Lee Thomas reached on a fielders choice, Pooch Starr singled scoring Dowling and then Chuck Ellis drove a long double to deep right center to send Thomas and Starr home with third and fourth markers of the inning.

Merchant scattered six hits for the rest of the game and in the seventh when the Pirates threatened he struck out three batters.
Only one Camden man had reached third until the ninth when Chuck suddenly lost his control and hit Whittier who was batting for Wellman. Porter second man up also was hit. Heal next up reached on an error by Starr, which allowed Whittier to score.
Porter advancing to third. Heal attempted to steal second and was run down while Porter scored the second run. Chuck then hit Mc-Grath the third hit batsman of the inning. Wright struck out and Boynton then drove a double to right to send McGrath across with the third tally. With the tying run on second Ellis struck out Merchant to end the game.

Stevens started for the Pirates in the field, while Chuck besides getting two doubles struck out 11 Camdenites.

HOW ROCKLAND RESPONDED

Chinese Relief Program In Community Build- ing Met With Fine Reception

Those who attended the splendid entertainment at the Community Building Tuesday night for the benefit of the Chinese Relief were loud in their praise.

The program opened with several selections by the Rockland City Band, which always responds to any patriotic call with such a fine cooperative spirit.

Mayor Edward R. Veazie paid a special compliment to Mrs. Helen H. Carlson, who has put so much of her time into the work. Postmaster James Connellan brought home the point that the Chinese had been fighting our war for several years with much bloodshed, hunger and misfortune. He expressed the belief that Rockland was ready to do its part in the great drive to help relieve these conditions. Mrs. E.
Carl Moran brought a message from the D.A.R.

Devotional exercises and the Salute to the Flag were led by Mrs.
Anne Snow. Capt. Keryn ap Rice, who is a fine example to the community in the generous expenditure of his time and energy, spoke briefly of the excellent morale of the Chinese.

Mrs. Carlson told of her great admiration for these loyal Chinese people, acquired during her years of personal association among them as a missionary.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McGinley are sure to add pleasure to any program. Tuesday night they sang two numbers in their usual pleasing manner, accompanied by Mrs. Jane Foley. Community singing was directed by Howard Crockett and

Joseph Emery, Sr., accompanied by Mrs. Faith Berry. These two men also deserve commendation for their excellent make-up of the Chinese characters.

A very interesting motion picture of China entitled "Western Front" was shown by Clarence deRoche-ment.

A major feature of this varied and interesting program was "The Chinese Wedding" with its beautiful broadened authentic costumes. It was of great interest, especially to the male members of the audience, to note that in China the man receives all of the attention on such occasions, which is just the opposite circumstance in this country.

One of the most enjoyable parts of the whole program was the delicious singing of Mrs. Conover Fitch, who has recently come to live in Rockland, while her husband is stationed at the U. S. Naval Base. Mrs.
Fitch majored in music at both Smith and Radcliffe Colleges, and is a pupil of Ruth Streeter of Boston.

The Boy Scouts from Troop 202 demonstrated admirably how well they live up to their motto, "Be Prepared," using the International Morse Code and the signal flag.
Earle Smith, Jr., patrol leader, William Holden, Richard Simmons, Robert Chatto and Curtis Lindsey spelled out "V For Victory" and
"Help China Relief." Kenneth Chatto exhibited a clever bit of fire lighting.

Mrs. Evelyn Peaslee, chairman of the committee on arrangements,

Capt. John I. Snow Raises
Cullen Barge No. 18,
At Portland

Capt. John I. Snow, of the Snow
Marine Company has raised the Cullen barge No. 18 which was sunk in Portland Harbor in 1940.
This 240-foot craft was towed into Portland with a sand-laden cargo of 2000 tons and since it was leaking badly, sank in the harbor near the Eastern Promenade over two years ago.

Previous attempts, by others, to raise this craft had proven unsuccessful, but Capt. Snow with the lighter Sophia, a derrick-lighter, and several scows, removed the cargo of sand from the barge within a period of three months, in 1941.

Two weeks ago, with the help of the schooner Annie B. Mitchell of Rockland, and the barge East of Bath, Capt. Snow was successful in raising the sunken barge, which under the terms of the contract, became the property of the Snow Marine Company.

helped in any way to achieve so fine
a program.

The citizens of Rockland can always be counted upon to "come across" with a fine showing in time of need. Their loyal and enthusiastic co-operation are to be greatly admired. Too much praise cannot be given to all these fine people who found time these busy days to help support such a worthy cause.

Costumes for "The Chinese Wedding" were loaned by Mrs. Keryn ap Rice, Mrs. Lillian Coppin, Jerome
C. Burrows, Mrs. Edward Peaslee,
Mrs. Frank A. Tirrell, Mrs. Faith
Berry and Mrs. Helen Carlson. The announcer was Jerome C. Burrows, who did a splendid job, as usual.

won't mind.

Take care of the cloth-brushed, pressed and on

Then buy only the kind of

Among the 10 new State Police officers selected by State Police Chief Henry P. Weaver are Merle F. Dobbins, 22, service station worker, Rockland; and John A. Dow, 25, salesman, of Warren. The officers passed physical examinations given by Dr. Roland L. McKay, Augusta, a major in the Maine State Guard. They were named to fill vacancies caused by regular officers on military leave, retirements and resignations. Weaver said that while the officers all married, would not be sufficient to fill all vacancies, it was impossible to add more because of budgetary limitations.

It is a brave insurance company actuary who would estimate any 32-year-old man's life expectancy at 23 years from today.

By pre-Pearl Harbor figures, it would take you 23 years to use up 15,000 gallons of gasoline in your automobile.

Fifteen thousand gallons of gasoline is what it takes to drive an Army mechanized division just 100 miles.
There's a lot of difference between that 50-miles-to-the-beach and 50-miles-back, and the 100 miles between ruined Rotterdam and the Nazi arsenal at Dusseldorf.

Ed Brown is leaving for his Summer sojourn at Boothbay Harbor.

The Chebeague, former oil tanker, is at Snow's yard being converted into a fishing craft.

The "strang canvas craft" found off Cape Comfort, Islesboro, sounds very much like one of the kayaks which Rockland youngsters have been using in and around Rockland harbor for several years, but an enterprising Islesboro correspondent gives voice to the theory that it may have come from enemy sources, and the older inhabitants "scoff at the suggestion that it is a youngster's toy." If any local kayak owner has recently lost his property, it is the wish of The Courier-Gazette that he may promptly report such loss.

The diamond which once witnessed mighty contests has gone native, and the shouts of the fans have been silenced.

E. Carl Moran

When a Courier-Gazette reporter walked into the headquarters of E. Carl Moran, Jr., State Director of the O.P.A. at 151 Water street, Augusta, yesterday afternoon he found a scene of amazing activity, although it lacked but few moments of the closing hour. The 55 members of the staff were all working diligently at the tasks in hand, and State Director Moran was calmly facing numerous problems at his desk on the second floor.

It was a scene in marked contrast with that date of May 1, 1942, when Director Moran, newly appointed, walked into the prospective home of the Maine O.P.A.—at that moment the sole representative of an undertaking of a task which would have staggered any man not already used to big undertakings.

The entire block was leased, its two floors and basement are now being used to capacity and the work is now proceeding with a systematic smoothness which speaks volumes for Director Moran's fame as an organizer. New appointments are constantly being made, and among them is a Rockland man who has the distinction of being State Rationing Officer, second only in authority to Director Moran. This man is Roland G. Ware, who recently established the Maritime Oil Company in this city. The reporter found him at his desk on the ground floor, swinging into his difficult labors as though always accustomed to them.

Another recent appointment which is of local interest and which will doubtless afford much local satisfaction is that of Mrs. Elizabeth R. Seavey as head of the Rockland rationing board.

Workers at the Red Cross sewing room are at present engaged in making boys' shirts and are sorely in need of white buttons for fronts and cuffs. Any donations in this line will be gratefully accepted.

In line with its support of all Civilian Defense activities, the Elks promptly volunteered the facilities of their Home for the next Motor Corps dance Wednesday night, when it became known that the Corps was unable to use its customary hall, the Armory. Bates' Orchestra will supply the music, and the Corps promises the same high type of good time and general merriment that have placed these on a high plane in congenial recreation. The generous support of Knox County citizens of the series of Corps dances has enabled the unit to purchase uniforms for 23 girls and equipment for use in the ambulance.

To Summer Guests:—

Visitors here are now in the so-called dim-out and sky-glow area and it is imperative that all co-operate with the Army and Navy in keeping lights curtailed to a minimum in order to stop silhouetting of ships at sea. We know Summer residents will co-operate with the Civilian Defense organization and draw curtains when lighting room lights is causing considerable sky-glow and jeopardizing merchant men.

Also it is illegal in Maine to take photographs for the duration of the war. Anyone taking pictures will be apprehended.

We hope the Summer colony will enjoy themselves while here and feel that they will co-operate 100% as that boys in the Army, the Navy, the Coast Guard and the Merchant Marine may have a better chance for their lives. Thank you.

Harland A. Townsend, Local Co-ordinator.

THE RED CROSS AND CIVILIAN DEFENSE

A department devoted to news items concerning these patriotic organizations

Mrs. Helen Wentworth, County nutrition chairman, is asking all local Civilian Defense chairmen to use the following form for their Garden survey to be made in connection with the Community Canning Center which will be held at the High School building in Rockland, very soon.

Canning Center Survey
Name _____
Address _____
Check the following:
1. Vegetable garden _____
2. Willing to contribute surplus vegetables _____
3. Will volunteer one-half day a week or more if possible to Canning Center _____
4. Willing to take own produce to Canning Center and help with the canning on a basis of leaving one can to taking three cans home _____
Remarks: _____

Interviewer:
Mrs. Elizabeth Seavey, chairman of the Civilian Defense in Rockland has originated the above form and has her local group all ready busy. Will every community be ready when the Canning Center opens?

In a recent issue of the Maine State Civilian Defense Council bulletin an article entitled, "Where's Elmer," has raised a very pertinent question in the minds of many of the Civilian Defense heads. The article says that when, if and as air raids come, citizens will then be asking where people are and the only way the county co-ordinators, John M. Pomeroy, for the men and Mrs. Horatio Cowan, for the women have of answering this question is through the Placement Bureau. For the efficient operation of the organization, it is absolutely essential to maintain complete and quickly visible records of every volunteer worker, his experience, qualifications and training. Possibly some local Civilian Defense officials are still keeping records of their personnel on little scraps of paper and miscellaneous notebooks. This would be very confusing in the event of an air raid. Setting up a good record system is one of the first things to do if the organizations are going to operate efficiently both for local use and for easy reference when needed by the State Office. One outstanding weakness has been that no record of both men's, women's organizations was being kept in one place and that only one or the other was available. Records of all and every organization of Civilian Defense should be kept by one person and records of both men and women should be available at any time. Some municipalities have already done this and find no difficulty in forwarding reports when requested to do so, while others are hard put to get the necessary information.

In connection with the work of the Volunteer Placement Bureau, Mrs. Horatio W. Cowan, Knox County chairman of the Women's Division, has issued the following bulletin "Will you register for Civilian Defense, a question asked from one end of the United States to the other during the past months has been answered in the affirmative. Registration of volunteers for Civilian Defense represents the greatest opportunity ever offered to a civilian population to mobilize its non-combatant man and woman power toward the all-out national effort.

So many people have asked: How can I put what talents and skills I already have to the best use in the present emergency? The answer to the question has been the business of the volunteer placement bureau which with registration and the organization of training classes is the responsibility of the Women's Division in Knox County and throughout the state and has resulted in putting to work a small army of men and women at the sort of volunteer effort they have indicated they would be willing to do.

To this end the information given voluntarily on the registration cards has been carefully tabulated and cross-indexed to group together those who were qualified for a particular line of work. And how does the Volunteer Placement Bureau work office records made from the wide range of information on the thousands of cards afford complete lists of volunteers who are able to work in various lines. During the past months, calls for service have come in from dozens of community projects and are continuing to come. If you have not already registered and are willing to help or if you have a defense job and have not registered please do so and help your volunteer bureau out. If you live in any of the following towns contact your local chairman and make out your card right away and signify what you will do now or in an emergency.

Knox County Volunteer Placement Bureau Chairmen: Mrs. Poy Brown, North Haven; Mrs. Fred Tripp, Crichaven; Mrs. Agnes Smalley, Vinalhaven; Miss Helen Fales, Friendship; Miss Herbert Smith, Thomaston; (Cushing District); Mrs. Robert McKinley, Union; Mrs. Dana Smith, Sr., Warren; Mrs. Lina Joyce, Rockport; Mrs. Stanley Frye, Camden; Mrs. Avis Nichols, Hope; Mrs. Gertrude Jones, Washington; Miss Fanny Gushee, Appleton; Miss Gladys Doherty, Thomaston; Mrs. Ruby Makinen, South Thomaston; Mrs. Sybil Anderson, Owls Head; Mrs. Mabel Rose, Tenants Harbor and Mrs. Lenore B. ## Boothbay Playhouse

Miss Marjorie Peggs, starring this week at Boothbay Playhouse in "The Philadelphia Story."

The first show of the season at Boothbay Playhouse was surprisingly well attended considering the existing handicaps and this week's production "The Philadelphia Story" is making an even more satisfactory record.

Next week July 15 through July 18, comes "By Invitation Only," a new play by Elsie Sirota. The play is a refreshing comedy about a group of theatrical has-beens, who have gotten into different vocations. A famous movie star and a mutual friend of theirs, offers her eastern home for their use during the Summer. The following mad cap adventures and complications, lend to a grand evening's enjoyment. Curtain is at 8.30.

Our War Effort

Materially we shall live less well, physically we shall work harder, emotionally we shall be under the cross-fire of disappointments and alarms, mentally we shall be wrestling with new ideas and new facts — Donald M. Nelson.

Citizens of Boulder, Colorado, situated on the shoulder of the high Rocky Mountains, believe that among the many novel situations brought about by the war, none is more interesting than the selection of this mountain town to become a sailors' rendezvous. The June influx of vacationists and University of Colorado summer students finds the streets animated and colorful with hundreds of officers and cadets in uniform.

I'm just a little guy,
And you might think I'd cry
Because I'm told the Government needs my pants.

If my Uncle Sam needs rubber,
He can have my pants—he needs them more than I!

Money was raised in Bath for social center for the merchant marine in New York city, and now the promoters plan to call the project Merrymeting Bay in Maine. It is recalled that this bay marks the meeting of five rivers, the Kennebec, Androscoggin, Caldoche, Eastern, and Abagadasset. One of the first ships built on the bay was called the Merrymeting, launched in 1786.

Hint—No better time than these very lovely days to have a boxed lemon sherry in the refrigerator and here is another easy method to produce it. Juice and rind of two lemons; 2-3 cup of corn syrup; full can evaporated milk; few grains salt. Put milk in ice box overnight. To make, whip it up and put lemon rind and corn syrup and salt with it, add one cup of whipped cream. Mix well and leave in tray of refrigerator at least 1 1/2 hours.

If you need some ready cash and in a hurry, go into the rabbit business. Out in Colorado they raise them by the thousands and many prefer the meat to chicken or duck and they are less expensive to raise and grow much faster. And then the fur is easily cured and sells for good prices. They do eat a lot. Experts in Colorado say that by destroying the rabbits they conserve much food for cattle. It is estimated that Jack-rabbits eat much of the food needed for cows so shut them into pens and feed them and get your money back twice over.

Will people ever get through spoiling best dishes with added flavor? ### MRS. ALICE S. ANDREWS

Mrs. Alice S. Andrews died Sunday, June 28, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Rokes, with whom she had made her home since the death of her husband eight years ago. She was born in Rockport, Aug. 13, 1862 to Joseph and Martha (Colby) Weed, and there she made her home until her marriage to Charles F. Andrews 63 years ago. Most of her life was spent in Rockport and Rockland, but for several years she was a resident of Searsmont.

She was a past matron and secretary of the Eastern Star and had held several offices in the Grange while living in that town. After her return to Rockport she became affiliated with Harbor Light Chapter, O.E.S. and was a member at the time of her death.

A devoted mother and kind and friendly neighbor to all. She is survived by her daughter, and two sons, Edgar Andrews of Wollaston, Mass., and George Andrews of Cambridge, Mass., seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

The services were conducted at the home June 30, Rev. J. Charles MacDonald officiating. The floral pieces were many and beautiful. Interment was in the family lot in West Rockport. The bearers were Frank Rokes, Edgar Andrews, Hilton Ames and Lyford Ames.

Chummy Club was entertained by Mrs. E. W. Freeman of Linden street this week with Mrs. Emerson Sadler as special guest. Bridge honors went to Mrs. Frank Fields, Mrs. Herbert Mullen, and Mrs. Harold Marshall.

WITH THE EXTENSION AGENTS AND THE KNOX-LINCOLN FARM BUREAU

Agriculture

Fred Weibel of North Warren has built eight of the new type shelter which is being found throughout the county. He says they are inexpensive, easy to build and very satisfactory.

One of the best brooder houses to be found in the county is the one recently built by Charles Kigel, county poultry project leader, at North Warren. It is 24x60 double deck cement foundation and floor, running water, insulated throughout, and he is putting on a built-up roof. He recently had a well drilled which gives him all the water he needs for his poultry and house.

Reports from blueberry growers indicate a good crop of berries in some areas, while others have only about half a crop. Dust for the maggot should be applied now. Calcium arsenate should be used at the rate of six to eight pounds per acre.

Allie Pitman, Appleton, says that he feels bees in the berry fields during the blossom period will help the set of fruit.

A pre-school clinic for children was held in the town of Hope, July 3, with Mrs. Grace Simmons, State field nurse, and a physician, who examined 22 pre-school children. Diphtheria toxoid was given to nearly all of them. Lucinda Rich, home demonstration agent, discussed food problems and good nutrition with each mother.

The Farm Bureau committee in charge were Mrs. Gladys Burgess, Mrs. Helen Wentworth, Mrs. Mildred Dunton, Mrs. Georgia Brown, Mrs. Sally Brown, and Miss Gertrude Hardy.

4-H Club Notes

June check-up shows the project enrollment in the garden, bean, chick raising, pig and canning projects has doubled last year's figures. Dairy, sweet corn, potato and poultry projects are also equal or better.

Local leaders and canning club members will be invited to attend the food conservation demonstration to be given by the special canning agents during July and the first part of August. Canning with less sugar, drying and salting are to be the subjects stressed. Meetings will be held in Owl's Head, Alford Lake, Camden, Rockland, Orr's Corner, Damariscotta and North Nobleboro during the week of July 14-17.

The Orr's Corner Bean Club Boys and their leader reported almost a ton of scrap rubber collected. They will spend the money for defense stamps. At their meeting at the Community Building June 30, they had a judging contest on poultry houses.

The Highlanders of Rockland met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Lura Sawyer, June 30. Plans for gathering scrap rubber were discussed. A canning meeting with the club agent will be held this month.

The George's Valley Club of Warren and their leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Moore went on a picnic at South Pond, June 27.

Walter Andrews was the winner of a croquet game played by the Amateur Farmers before their meeting June 28. The boys will have a club tour July 12.

Mrs. Henry Keller, leader of the Singing Sewing 4-H of West Rockport entertained the club at supper July 1. All projects were reported started and some nearly completed.

Samoset Music

Rand Smith Will Be the Director For This Season
(by Gladys St. Clair Heistad)

A pleasant surprise was accorded to me a few days ago. Responding to the telephone, a friendly voice said: "This is Rand Smith." I am sure you all will at once remember Rand Smith as the charming young man and gifted singer who studied for a period of some years with H. Wellington Smith of New York and spent Summers in the music colony Mr. Smith had at Pleasant Point. During these Summers Rand was most generous in giving his talent at local concerts, particularly for the annual concert at Warren where he has a large enthusiastic following. But to go back—

Mr. Smith continued to tell me that he is in charge of the music at the Samoset Hotel for the Summer and really had something to talk about, so on Sunday night, July 5, I betook myself to the Samoset and there had not only the pleasure of a long talk with this alert and enthusiastic young man but the delight of hearing a pleasing concert to which Mr. Smith contributed no small part.

A sincere effort is being made to have music a distinctive feature at the Samoset this season. In addition to the dinner and luncheon music which will be of a semi-classical nature, and for dancing which of course is of the popular type, it is the intent to present each Sunday evening at 8:45 in the lobby a program by the Ensemble, this program to comprise compositions of a more serious caliber. Mr. Rand has for an ensemble: Barbara Phelan, harpist; Harry Zaratzian, violinist; John Worley, saxophonist; and William Grothkopp, pianist.

Miss Phelan has played with Arthur Fiedler's orchestra in Boston, and Mr. Zaratzian was concert master last year of Mr. Fiedler's N.Y.A. orchestra. Mr. Worley is a graduate of Oberlin School of Music and it is not amiss to say he is the most versatile member of the Ensemble. Incidentally he plays the tenor sax with rare skill, imbuing it with a tone not unlike the cello. Mr. Grothkopp is a student at the New England Conservatory of Music, and he and Mr. Zaratzian have just turned 19 years of age. It is a gifted and earnest group and under Mr. Smith's inspiring leadership cannot fail to do splendid work and give much pleasure throughout the season.

Mr. Smith himself has been acclaimed for his superb artistry, charming personality, and beautiful voice. Despite his youth he has met success in many fields of musical endeavor. The world premiere of Deems Taylor's "Rhapsody" given by the Philadelphia Opera Company, in 1942, afforded Mr. Smith his first operatic role. He won the Massachusetts and New England Federation of Music Clubs contest and included in his colorful repertoire are many oratorios. Mr. Smith gave a highly successful Jordan Hall (Boston) concert in April of this year.

To give you an idea of the type of program which will be given Sunday nights, I am showing that which I heard, the first of the series:

Ensemble—Moment Musical, Schubert
Valse Triste, Hasselmann
Baritone—Pilgrim Song, Tschickovsky
The 23rd Psalm, Gladys Rich
American Lullaby, Gladys Rich
For You Alone (violin and piano), Trechi
Violin—Meditation from "Thais", Massenet
Chanson Louis XIII and Pavane, Kreisler
Ensemble—Sylvia, Oley Speart
Saxophone—Schon Rosmarin, Kreisler
Violin and Harp—Ave Verum, Mozart
Ensemble—Show Boat Selections, Kern
(Mr. Smith singing "Old Man River")

The entire program was presented with sincerity, and the guests paid tribute in close attention and hearty applause, which must have been gratifying to the young performers.

Mr. Smith has made tremendous strides in his art during the past few years. His voice now is rich and powerful, of unusual range for a baritone, and used with both skill and intelligence. He imbues his work with dramatic feeling and sensitive understanding, and always there is his pleasing personality to establish the subtle bond between audience and performer which is so necessary for success.

The quotations from the Bible include the following passages: "And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to the disciples, saying, Drink ye all of it; For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many of the remission of sins." After today Rand Smith will be the special guest soloist at all the services of the Summer. A lazy man does his hardest work looking for an easy place.

Some Quaint Superstitions of North Woods Described By Guest Speaker

Superstitions which have their basis in the North Woods formed the basis of a most interesting talk given by Rev. A. G. Hemstead before the Rockland Lions Club Wednesday. His talk was to the accompaniment of some very interesting and well-told stories, culminating with the superstition regarding the imprint of a woman's leg on the Col. John Buck monument in Bucksport.

It was the new pastor's introduction to most of these present and the impression which they gained of him was of such a favorable nature as to indicate that he will again be the Lions' guest speaker at an early date. He was presented Wednesday by Wilbur P. Senter of the July entertainment committee.

Mr. Hemstead has traveled about a great deal in Maine's north woods and has been at considerable pains to diagnose the superstitions tales which have been unfolded to him. The woodsmen, he said, will deny that they have any superstitions, but will tell you lots of things that it's bad luck to do. For instance if a bird comes into the logging camp and shot it means something bad is going to happen before Spring. It's also bad luck to shoot a white deer, and the shooting of albinos of any variety is taboo. The woodsmen would never think of using people in the construction of a camp. They believe that a curse has been put on the people because the leaves are ever shaking.

They tell also of the irate woodsmen who caught a robber bird in his camp and plucked out all of its plumage. When the cook returned to the camp the next Fall he had become baldheaded.

The story of the John Buck monument and its strange marking was told in elaborate detail, with attention to the varying legends. It has attracted the attention of many literary writers and many distorted tales concerning it have been published. Mr. Hemstead quoted Just-made that trip Sunday accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Dow, Mrs. R. T. Sterling, Sr., Miss Elizabeth Sterling, Miss Marion Sterling and Mrs. Hill. They made just door yard calls and enjoyed eating for the first time at Witham's. They were directed to this unusual eating place by Mrs. Fred Collamore. The Hills always call on the Collamores when in Rockland.
